KENTUCKY STRAIGHT WHISKEY

THE WESTERN GATE OF THE KENTUCKY BOURBON TRAIL

A proud member of the Kentucky Bourbon Trail, Green River’s Owensboro distillery is the western-most destination on the Trail, with easy access from major cities like Nashville and St. Louis. On the same grounds as it stood in 1885, Green River’s unique location, nestled in the historic riverfront city of Owensboro, provides a distinct and unforgettable experience, presenting both the past and the future of bourbon.

THE WHISKEY WITHOUT REGRETS

Founded in 1885, Green River is the 10th oldest distillery licensed in Kentucky, giving it the designation DSP-KY-10. Green River’s legacy is one of the most fascinating in the whiskey world.

As the official whiskey of the U.S. Marine Hospital for 18 years in the early 20th century, Green River was originally known as “the whiskey without a headache,” featured prominently on the bottle, throughout the brand’s merchandising, and Green River’s many national ads. After Prohibition, this tagline later changed to “the Whiskey Without Regrets,” when whiskey was no longer considered medicinal.

Songs were penned about the “Whiskey Without Regrets,” and early reviews described it as a “king among whiskeys.” The whiskey won many international awards, including a gold medal and “best of show” at the Paris Exposition in 1900, and later a grand prize at the 1905 Liege Exposition in Belgium. The Whiskey Without Regrets tagline is a gateway to telling Green River’s rich story and a consistent nod to the brand’s heritage forging into the future.

AN ABRIDGED HISTORY OF GREEN RIVER

J. W. McCULLOCH,
Distiller, Owensboro, Ky.

GREEN RIVER FOUNDED

J.W. McCulloch founded the distillery in 1885, making it the 10th oldest licensed in Kentucky (DSP-KY-10).

1907

CREATING A LEGACY

Green River became the most advertised whiskey in the world.

1917

STRIKING LITERAL GOLD!

The whiskey was so popular that 20 barrels were once traded for interest in a Colorado gold mine that panned out, earning Green River the title “most expensive spirit or whiskey ever sold.”

POST-PROHIBITION

The distillery was rebuilt and the brand sold off to another company. After Prohibition, no medical claims could be made with alcohol so the slogan was changed to “The Whiskey Without Regrets.”

LIKE THE PHOENIX

The distillery began reconstruction, preserving as much of the original facility as possible.

THE PRIDE OF OWENSBORO

Green River returned to the shelves again and expanded its distribution across the country with an original bourbon whiskey, wheated bourbon, rye, and single barrel expression.

STRIKING GOLD!

Green River Whiskey won numerous international awards.

1913

THE WHISKEY WITHOUT A HEADACHE

Widely advertised as “The Whiskey Without A Headache” for its premium quality, it was once the official whiskey of the U.S. Marine Hospital.

ON FIRE

At the height of its reign, a mysterious fire reduced the distillery empire to ashes and destroyed more than 40,000 barrels of whiskey within three hours.

GREEN RIVER DRIES UP

Green River eventually stopped distribution. The distillery changed hands several times and was eventually abandoned.

2016

THE STILL'S RUN AGAIN

Once again, Green River Whiskey was distilled and aged where it originally started 131 years prior.

Everything from the packaging to the distillery grounds features ornaments and subtle (or not so subtle) nods to Green River's century-plus history. The mural at the Owensboro distillery is a recreation of the brand's post-Prohibition tagline.
